Spiritual holiday camp in the hotel Churfistenblick

Are you captured by your everyday life without giving you the freedom to break out of the old norms; do you feel the urgent desire to get closer to your own self.

Then be prepared for a spiritual adventure. In the Swiss Alps in a former spa hotel, we are very pleased to start with you this inner journey. In the Himalayas of Switzerland, with a wide sight and view on the exalted Churfirten, you can experience pure nature. The fresh mountain air awakens your mind and soul, and swimming in the near mountain lake opens your senses for spirituality.

Krishna consciousness in a relaxing holiday mood is our motto for this week.

Whether you are coming alone or with your family, whether old or young, it will be exciting for each and everyone. A professional care team and the big adventure playground will take care of the children (from 4 years on).

Make an enlivening experience for the body and soul
